as the principal greek witness of the so called western tradition of the gospels and acts codex bezae s enigmatic text in parallel greek and latin columns presents a persistent problem of new testament textual criticism the present study challenges the traditional view that this text represents a vivid retelling of the canonical narratives cited by ancient writers from justin martyr to marcion and translated early into syriac and latin avicenna s metaphysics in arabic ilâhiyyât is the most important and influential metaphysical treatise of classical and medieval times after aristotle this volume presents studies on its direct and indirect influence in arabic hebrew and latin culture from the time of its composition in the early eleventh century until the sixteenth century among the philosophical topics which receive particular attention are the distinction between essence and existence the theory of universals the concept of god as the necessary being and the theory of emanation it is shown how authors such as averroes abraham ibn daud albertus magnus thomas aquinas and john duns scotus react to avicenna s metaphysical theories the studies also address the philological and historical circumstances of the textual tradition in three different medieval cultures the studies are written by a distinguished international team of contributors who convened in 2008 to discuss their research in the villa vigoni italy rome and judaea explores the nature of judaea s first diplomatic mission to rome during the maccabean revolt did it result in a sanctioned treaty or was it founded instead on amity this book breaks new ground in this debate by bringing to light the roman jewish friendship tablet a newly discovered piece of evidence that challenges the theory rome ratified an official treaty with judaea incorporating interdisciplinary research and this new textual evidence the book argues that roman jewish relations during the maccabean revolt were motivated by the roman concept of diplomatic friendship or amicitia
